Planning and Discussion

The Board of Education, New Carlisle City officials, Bethel Township trustees, representatives of Clark County and state representatives conducted a joint meeting to discuss the following topics:

Bethel Township:

Attended out-of-town workshop – Fire Liability
Budget Balances
St. Rt. 235 Improvements to begin March/April

New Carlisle:

Congratulations to the new council members – Jim Leathley and Aaron Leighty
New Year’s Eve Ball Drop – Very successful - approximately 2500 in attendance

Tecumseh Local:

Holiday concerts were great
Spring break – March 27 thru 31
Gearing up for testing

Clark County:

Congratulations to the new commissioners – Melanie Flax Wilt and Lowell McGlothlin
First quarter – working on strategic plan, public information and transparency
Land Bank purchased Macy’s building.
New Love’s Travel Center opened.
Fairgrounds purchased the armory and will demo and hope to have hotels/motels built on the property.

Newly elected Clark County Sheriff, Debbie Burchett and two deputies were in attendance. Some new things and changes are in the planning stages for the Sheriff’s Dept.

Clark County Auditor, John Federer, discussed the property valuations. Board of Revisions, as of the present time, has only received 40 appeals. Mr. Federer explained that the auditor’s office is the hub of all the governmental offices in the county.

Congratulations to newly elected Clerk of Courts, Melissa Tuttle.

Melissa Tuttle stated that the New Carlisle title office will remain open.

State Representative Kyle Koehler, informed the group that Jacob King, Bethel Township Fire Chief, would be returning from deployment soon. Representative Koehler stated that he and Jacob worked on the Arson Bill which passed on December 8, 2016. Mr. Koehler also explained the Bicycle Law to the group.
