

December 12, 2022

THS Choirs Hold Holiday Concert December 12

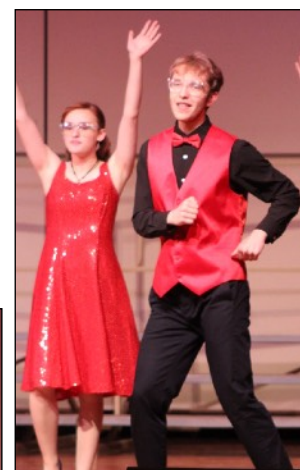

The Tecumseh High School choir got everyone in the holiday spirit with their concert on December 13. Elie Hoover and Nolan Shafer were the emcees for the event, where all three choirs performed a variety of holiday selections. The second half of the concert turned more upbeat and fun, with the Women's Choir performing in their pajamas.

More pictures from the THS choir concert-

Park Elementary Elementary Holds Holiday Spirit Week

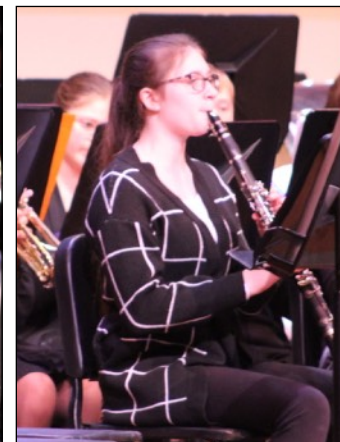

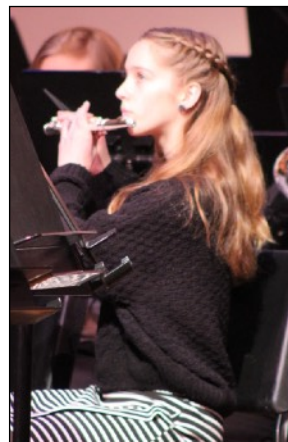

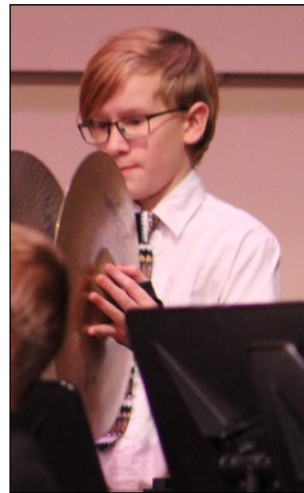

Along with holding a Spirit Week the week before Christmas break, students had lots of fun activities. One of the favorite events was spraying Mrs. Strader with Silly String. Students who sold 20 items for the PTO fundraiser participated in this reward.

Tecumseh Middle School Bands Hold Holiday Concert

NCE Has Spirit Week to Collect Donations for Impact Bethel

The New Carlisle Elementary School student council sponsored a spirit week to collect canned food donations the week before Christmas vacation. Student council members also held a candy cane sale to raise money to donate to the group.

Donnelsville Third Graders Have Fun With Guests

Students in Mrs. Cassell's third grade class at Donnelsville Elementary each invited a guest to come in and build gingerbread houses together. They were able to spend time together and have fun without distractions.

Author Visits New Carlisle Elementary & Talks With 2nd & 3rd Graders

Tecumseh graduate and author Megan Runkle visited New Carlisle Elementary to share her book, The Christmas Castle, with the students. She met with 2nd and 3rd graders to talk with them about the writing process and to read her book to them. Students really enjoyed the experience and had the opportunity to buy a copy of the book.

Donnelsville Fourth Graders Perform December 14

The fourth grade concert began with the song Whacky March from the Nutcracker, then continued with O Tannenbaum. Throughout the concert the different classes took turns playing instruments, accompanying the other classes singing. The concert came to an end with the song Winter Fantasy.

Donnelsville Fifth Graders Hold Holiday Concert

The concert featured a variety of songs, including A Holiday Visit, You Can Count on Me, Deck the Hall and Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree. For different songs each of the fifth grade classes took turns playing the xylophones while the other classes sang.

High School Bands Have Holiday Concerts December 15

The high school bands combined into one to perform their annual fall concert. The performance featured a clarinet solo by Isaac Chavez and snare drum performance by Levi Miller and Harold Vincent. Senior Isaac Chavez also was the conductor for the song Christmas Music for Winds.

Tecumseh Middle School Shows Off Holiday Spirit

Freshmen in Advanced English Get Creative With Odyssey Projects

After reading The Odyssey, students in Mr. Litteral's English class got creative as they worked together taking parts of the epic poem and making a theme park representation of it. Pictured below are students working on various stages of their projects.

