THS Juniors Perform While Reading "The Crucible"

Mrs. Hiett's juniors have been performing "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller as they read it aloud in class. Mrs. Hiett stops when needed to explain parts of the plot and to give additional information as students perform. The students have been enjoying performing, using props and costumes to develop their characters as they read aloud in front of the class.

Principles of Foods Classes Learn & Practice Knife Skills

Using play dough that they had made in class a few days before, students in Mrs. Lynch's Principles of Foods classes learned the proper techniques for chopping, mincing, peeling and slicing while using a paring knife and a chef's knife.

Tecumseh High School Students of the Week for September 4

Congratulations to junior Kylee Sortman for being selected Student of the Week for September 5. Kylee was nominated by Mr. Hitt, who said, "Kylee has had a great start to the year. She answers a ton of questions in class, is doing very well academically, she is polite, respectful, and is a great representative of Tecumseh. I've been impressed by her work ethic and desire to do well!"

Senior Jadea Gearhart has also been chosen Student of the Week for September 5. Jadea was nominated by Mr. Hoffman and Mrs. Wynn because she is always friendly and helpful. Her teachers stated, "Jadea demonstrates all the characteristics of an Arrow! She is Respectful, Responsible,

Resourceful, and Relentless every single day!"
Congratulations, Jadea!

Students Take the Stage at the Start of the Year

Theater Arts students are pictured below performing in a wide range of improvisation scenes. This helps them become comfortable on stage and get to know other students in the class.
