Revised Bylaw - Vol. 43, No. 1

0100 - DEFINITIONS

Whenever the following items are used in these bylaws, policies, and administrative guidelines, they shall have the meaning set forth below:

Administrative Guideline

A statement, based on policy, usually written, which outlines and/or describes the means by which a policy should be implemented and which provides for the management cycle of planning, action, and assessment or evaluation.

Agreement

A collectively negotiated contract with a recognized bargaining unit.

Apps and Services

Apps and services ("apps/services") are software (i.e., computer programs and applications) that support the interaction of personal communication devices (as defined in Bylaw 0100, below<sup>above</sup>) or technology resources (as defined by Bylaw 0100, below) or information resources (as defined by Bylaw 0100, below) over a network, or client-server applications in which the user interface runs in a web browser. Apps and services are used to communicate/transfer information/data that allow students to perform actions/tasks that assist them in attaining educational achievement goals/objectives, enable staff to monitor and assess their students' progress, and allow staff to perform other tasks related to their employment. Apps and services also are used to facilitate communication to, from, and among and between; staff, students, and parents, Board members and/or other stakeholders, and members of the community.

Board

The Board of Education.

Bylaw

Rule of the Board for its own governance.

Classified Employee

An employee who provides support to the District's program and whose position does not require a professional license.

Compulsory School Age

A child between six (6) and eighteen (18) years of age or a child under six (6) years of age who has been enrolled in kindergarten unless at any time the child's parent or guardian, at the parent's or guardian's discretion and in consultation with the child's teacher and principal, formally withdraws the child from kindergarten.

District

The School District.

Due Process

The safeguards to which a person is entitled in order to protect their rights.

Educational Service Center Superintendent [LOCAL]

The Superintendent of Schools for the Clark County Educational Service Center Schools.

Full Board

Authorized number of voting members entitled to govern the District.

Information Resources

The Board defines Information Resources to include any data/information in electronic, audio-visual, or physical form, or any hardware or software that makes possible the storage and use of data/information. This definition includes, but is not limited to, electronic mail, voice mail, social media, text messages, databases, CD-ROMs/DVDs, websites, motion picture film, recorded magnetic media, photographs, digitized information, or microfilm. This also includes any equipment, computer facilities, or online services used in accessing, storing, transmitting, or retrieving electronic communications.

May

This word is used when an action by the Board or its designee is permitted but not required.

Meeting

Any prearranged discussion of the Board's public business by a majority of Board members.

Parent

The natural, adoptive, or surrogate parents or the party designated by the courts as the legal guardian or custodian of a student. Both parents will be considered to have equal rights unless a court of law decrees otherwise. When a student is the subject of a power of attorney or caretaker authorization affidavit executed by the student's grandparent(s), the term parents shall also refer to the grandparent designated as the attorney-in-fact under the power of attorney or the grandparent who executed the affidavit.

Although the grandparent shall have rights and responsibilities with regard to the care, physical custody, and control of the student, including the ability to enroll the student in school, to obtain from the District educational or behavioral information about the student, consent to all school-related matters, and consent to medical, psychological, or dental treatment for the student, the power of attorney does not convey legal custody of the grandchild to the grandparent and does not affect the rights of the parent, guardian, or custodian of the student in any future proceeding concerning the custody of the student or allocation of parental rights and responsibilities for the care of the student.

Likewise, although the grandparent shall have rights and responsibilities with regard to the care, physical custody, and control of the student, including the ability to enroll the student in school, to discuss with the District the student's educational progress, consent to all school-related matters, and consent to medical, psychological, or dental treatment for the student, the caretaker authorization affidavit does not convey legal custody of the grandchild to the grandparent and does not affect the rights of the student's parents, guardian or custodian regarding the care, physical custody, and control of the child.

Personal Communication Devices

Personal communication devices ("PCDs") are electronic communication devices powered by batteries or electricity that are capable of receiving, transmitting, or receiving and transmitting communication between individuals or groups that are not issued by the District for the purpose of instruction. Examples of PCDs include computers, laptops, tablets, e-readers, cellular telephones/cellular/mobile phones, smartphones, gaming devices, smartwatches and other wearable technology, and ( ) telephone paging devices (e.g., beepers or pagers), ( ) and/or other web-enabled devices used to communicate of any type.
