Parent Corner

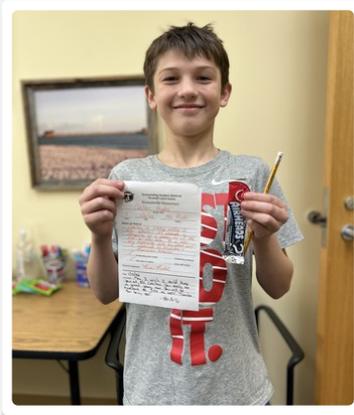

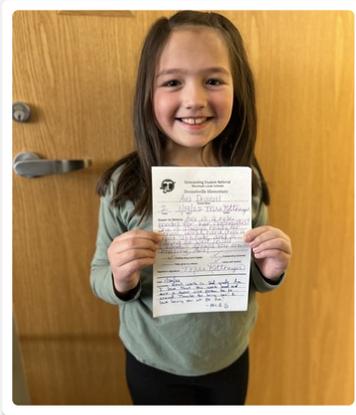

We are constantly discussing $E+R=O$ on our daily announcements. Maybe your child has said something to you at home about it. Every day, we have E (vents) that happen in our lives. We get to choose our R (esponse) to those events. Choosing a good R (esponse) can give us a great O (utcome). This is a great thing for adults to remember too. Maybe it's the responses you have to your kids graded class or homework, progress report, or report card. What is the outcome you want? So how should you respond to a predictable event?

Students are written up all the time for having positive responses to events here at school. 98% of these write ups are in the form of positive office referrals. The students have good R's in the classroom and the outcome may be a note you receive in the mail from your child's teacher highlighting their great efforts here at school. You should see their smiles when they come to my office for these awesome referrals.

Do me a favor. Start asking your child about their everyday outcomes at school? Were they good? Happy? Frustrating? We can usually trace that back to our own responses to events that happened that day.

Title 1 Services

Title I is a federally funded program. At Donnelsville, the goal of Title 1 is to ensure a high-quality education for every child, by providing extra help to students who need it most. Title 1 funds are used to raise the achievement of students who are failing, or are at-risk of failing to meet the challenging state standards. At Donnelsville Elementary, Title 1 funds provide services to students in grades 2-5. These services are delivered through a variety of methods such as small group interventions, individual interventions, or with in- class support.
